Continuation of Substance of Interview including description of the general nature of what was discussed: Basically discussed the applicability of Fig.'s 1-2 in the AAPA and in detail discussed that functionally there is no criticality in interleaving before coding or vice versa, this is a matter of design choice and that it would have been obvious in a two antenna system as described in Fig. 1 of the AAPA performing coding before interleaving would require only one coder only if both the coders as in the figure were performing both the same (algorithmically) coding. There was an agreement between Mr. Tarik Muharemovic and the examiner regarding these issues. .
